Station Coimbatore Dated the 7th November 1935 ~~19~~

From (Name) B.G.Holdsworth Esq.,I.C.S.,

(Designation) Collector of Coimbatore.

To The Secretary to the ~~Government of Madras~~, Commissioners of Land Revenue and Settlement, Madras. Department.

Sir,

S.No. 263 of Chilukkuvadi village originally stood classed as natham and was occupied by the houses of Adi-Dravidas. ~~For~~ For some unknown reason the natham came to be abandoned gradually and the Adi-Dravidas quitted the place selling their house sites to others including caste ryots. The abandoned natham was transferred to assessed waste in 1930.

2. In Collector's L.Dis. 3428/30 dated 22-3-30 it was ordered that the land might be assigned free of land value to those who had proved their title by means of sale

8-10-31 to one Nanjai Gowda son of Giriya Gowda on the representation of the latter at the time of transfer proposals that he purchased the site in 1909 and that he continued to be in occupation of it at that time.

2. It now transpires that one Sambi daughter of Javaran is the rightful owner of the site and has been in occupation of it for the last 15 years. Giriya Gowda has produced the documents of 1909 to prove his claim at the time of assignment. He had sold it in 1911 to one Madan of Mamballi who in turn sold it in 1918 to one Siddan. Sambi purchased the site from Siddan in Document No. 2444 dated 17-6-1920 and she has been in enjoyment ever since. These facts were kept back at the time of the assignment to Nanje Gowda.

3. Nanje Gowda now admits that Sambi has been in enjoyment of the land for several years.

4. These facts should have come out when the notice inviting objections to the transfer was first published in the village but it is noticed now that the notice was not published in that part of the village where Adi-Dravidas are residing.

5. There has been a material irregularity in the matter of the assignment. There has also been a misrepresentation of facts but for which the land would not have been assigned to Nanjai Gowda. As more than three years have now elapsed since the original grant. I request that the Board may be pleased to cancel the grant to enable me to take fresh proceedings to assign the land to its rightful owner, Sambi

Assignment - Land (Coimbatore) - Kollegal Tk - Chikkeswara vge - S. No. 263-J - Cancellation

pp 1-2 c/f. B. 6473/35

To A's

Please see the Colrs's letter at pp 1-2 c/f The Colr. recommends the Cancellation of the assignment made on 8.10.31 in favour of Nanje Gowda so that the land may be assigned to Sambi who is the real owner of the land having got it by sale & has been in enjoyment of it for the last 15 yrs. The case has come to the Board as more than 3 yrs. have elapsed since the date of assignment

2 It is usual in such cases to issue a notice calling on the assignee to show cause against cancellation. In view however, of the fact that the assignee admits Sambis enjoyment for several years, no formal notice seems necessary. For orders whether the assignment may be cancelled
